The Roles of Language in CLIL Oct 23 2022 An examination of how language functions in CLIL, based on a corpus of classroom interactions. Drawing on their wide experience as CLIL educators and researchers, the authors explore data collected in real CLIL classrooms from two interrelated perspectives: the CLIL classroom as an interactional context for developing language and content, and the genres and registers through which the meanings of the different academic subjects are enacted. From the analysis of this corpus of data, the authors provide a rich description of how CLIL students' language works and may be expected to develop. Also available separately as a hardback.

Guinness World Records: Science and Stuff Jan 02 2021 Packed with spectacular superlatives, shocking stats, fantastic facts and fun figures, Science and Stuff celebrates the simple joy in finding things out. What can cats teach us about the laws of physics? Why was cabbage banned on the International Space Station? (Can you fart in space?) And would a penny dropped from the Empire State Building really kill someone? (Short answer: No!) But it's not all facts and stats. The feature chapter just for Makers, introduced by our very own mad professor Burnaby Q. Orbax, challenges you to attempt record-breaking science experiments at home, from the fastest Mentos & Soda rocket car to the most slime thrown and caught in a minute! Join us as we rise from the deepest depths of the ocean, where weird glowing fish hunt in the darkness, to the mountaintop observatories where scientists unravel the secrets of the universe.

Into the Heart of Borneo Jun 26 2020 'We've left a lot of men in Borneo - know what I mean?' With their SAS trainer's warnings ringing in their ears, the naturalist, Redmond O'Hanlon, and the poet, James Fenton, set out to rediscover the lost rhinoceros of Borneo. They were loaded with enough back-breaking kit to survive two months in a steaming 95° (in the shade) jungle of creeping, crawling, biting things. O'Hanlon could also rely on his encyclopaedic knowledge of the region's flora and fauna, and had read-up on how to avoid being eaten by anything (stick your thumbs in a crocodile's eyes, if you have time). And yet they proceeded to have an adventure that neither O'Hanlon, nor his friend, nor even his guides were remotely prepared for... 'Consistently exciting, often funny, and erudite without ever being overwhelming' Punch.

IGCSE Crash Course: 20th Century History Mar 16 2022 Recommended age group: Age 12 and above. Recommended audience: Students, teachers, and all learners who wish to understand the connect between the past and the present. In a time when liberal and interdisciplinary education is on the rise, the importance of the social sciences is increasing. Such education focuses on introspecting into current and future challenges. This means that knowledge of historical events would give us a head start in any field of study. This book is a resource aimed at providing such knowledge to students. In particular, it aids students in learning about the 20 th Century. It has been published with the intent to help students obtain a good understanding of events, and equip them with a strong foundation to relate to the significance of the described events in today's world. Tough topics have been simplified by using flow charts, tables, bullet points, and simple language, without sacrificing on the quality of content. This has been done to make the content easy to comprehend and seem more like a story than something monotonous. This resource hopes to spark an interest in readers towards these topics. It is mainly aimed at students of the IGCSE History curriculum, which is a two-year long course spanning over Grades 9 and 10. This resource is designed to be used for both years. It is also suitable for learners outside of this subject and curriculum (such as students of Global Perspectives and other Social Studies subjects in International and Indian Boards), and fellow history-buffs. The content it covers could also be taught to middle school students, to help ignite an interest in this fascinating subject.
